Description

Deceptively Spacious Detached Family Home on Prestigious Demesne Development

A rare chance to acquire a deceptively spacious and highly desirable detached residence, beautifully positioned within the sought-after Demesne development. This charming and versatile home is ideally suited to a wide range of purchasers, from growing families to those seeking a peaceful yet well-connected location.

Conveniently located just a short distance from Ashington town centre, residents benefit from a full range of amenities including both traditional high-street shopping and national retailers. Excellent local schools cater to all age groups, while transport links are superb with regular local bus services and direct access to the A189 spine road and A1 trunk road, providing smooth connections north and south. The nearby town of Morpeth offers a mainline East Coast rail station, with routes to Edinburgh, Newcastle, and London. The new Northumberland train line is available from Ashington town centre to Newcastle. For commuters, Newcastle city centre and Newcastle International Airport are both approximately 18 miles away.

Accommodation Comprises: Welcoming entrance porch, convenient cloakroom/WC, generous entrance hallway, well-appointed kitchen, bright and airy dining room overlooking the side garden and spacious and elegant lounge.

To the first floor, there are three well-proportioned double bedrooms, Master bedroom with access to a private balcony and family bathroom.

Set within extensive and mature gardens, the property enjoys well-established borders with mature shrubs, bushes, and trees, offering privacy and seasonal colour. The rear garden, side garden, and lawned front create a tranquil and impressive outdoor space. Additionally, the home includes a double garage, ideal for secure parking and storage.
