Description

Introducing this rare-to-market, extended and reconfigured three-bedroom detached home, offered with no onward chain, and providing an excellent balance of spacious living, modern upgrades, and versatile accommodation—ideal for families, first-time buyers, or those looking to upsize.

The ground floor welcomes you into a generous lounge, enhanced by an open-plan garage conversion that creates a bright and flexible living space. This flows seamlessly into the dining area, featuring patio doors opening directly onto the rear garden—perfect for entertaining and enjoying indoor-outdoor living. The extended kitchen has been thoughtfully modernised, combining contemporary design with practical functionality and ample space for everyday family life.

To the first floor are three well-proportioned double bedrooms, all generous in size and adaptable to a variety of needs, along with a modern family bathroom. Further enhancing the accommodation is a versatile loft room, ideal for use as a home office, hobby room, or additional storage, complete with its own en-suite W/C.

Externally, the property continues to impress. A private double driveway to the front provides off-street parking for multiple vehicles, while the enclosed rear garden offers an excellent space for families, entertaining guests, or simply relaxing outdoors.

Ideally situated in the heart of Peterlee, the property enjoys close proximity to local amenities, schools, and transport links, while still benefiting from a peaceful residential setting.

This is a fantastic opportunity to purchase a thoughtfully extended detached home offering flexible living space and excellent potential, with the added benefit of no onward chain.

Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate everything this home has to offer.
