Description

This beautifully presented ground floor flat has been thoughtfully reconfigured by its current owners to create a stylish and highly practical living space, ideal for first time buyers or those looking to downsize.

Originally designed as a two bedroom property, it has been opened up to provide an additional reception area, enhancing the sense of space and versatility. The layout can easily be reverted back to a two bedroom configuration if required.

The location is particularly convenient, offering excellent access to a range of local amenities including a Metro station, supermarkets, and independent shops. The property is also situated close to Bill Quay Community Farm, providing a pleasant nearby green space. For commuters, road links are superb, with the A19, Tyne Tunnel, and Felling Bypass all within easy reach, ensuring straightforward travel to Newcastle, Gateshead, and beyond.

Additional features include UPVC double glazing and gas central heating. As part of the redesign, a useful walk-in storage cupboard with overhead storage has been created in the main bedroom.

The accommodation briefly comprises: an entrance hall with a large storage cupboard housing the combi boiler, a spacious lounge, main bedroom, and a versatile dining room that could serve as a second bedroom. There is also a fitted kitchen leading to a rear lobby with a shower cubicle (currently used for storage), a bathroom, and a private rear yard.

This is a truly unique property, and internal viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the space and flexibility on offer.
